Three Attacks Were Made by a Band of Men in Ambush at Shenandoah, Pa.

EIGHTH REGIMENT CALLED TO ARMS

A Double Guard, Supplied With Ball Cartridges, Surrounds the Camp With Instructions to Shoot.

A Lithuanian Is Under Arrest in the Guard House and the Provost Marshal is on the Trail of Others.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 4.—The entire 8th regiment was called to arms during Saturday night as a result of three attacks made by a band of men in ambush who threw stones at the troops now in camp on the plateau outside of the town. These attacks are becoming so frequent that Brig. Gen. Gubin has decided to adopt stern measures to end them. Sunday night a double guard supplied with ball cartridges surrounds the camp and the Saturday night's stone throwing is repeated they must shoot to kill and inactivate afterwards. One of the attacking party, a Lithuanian named William Stoppants, is under arrest and is confined in the guard tent, and the provost marshal is on the trail of others. It is not known how many were in the crowd, but the officers of the 8th regiment believe the number to have been more than a dozen.

The first attack, according to Col. Theodore F. Hoffman, was made at 10:45 o'clock Saturday night. Private Payne, of Company I, on sentry duty, saw a party of men on the Maryland side of the river, near the camp of the 8th regiment from the 12th. He commanded the men to halt and called the corporals. One of the pickets captured Stoppants as he came running down the road. The others escaped.

The notice of the firing and the bugle call to arms stirred up the 12th regiment and the governor's troops of the cavalry which is located close to the 8th regiment. Col. Clement, of the 12th regiment, sent out detachments to investigate the trouble, as did also Capt. Ott, in command of the cavalry. The 8th regiment, Col. Hoffman said, was under arms and ready for action three minutes after the first shot was fired. Investigation was made without result and then the command, after standing in formation for 20 minutes, was called to quarters and not again disturbed.

REMARKABLE ORDEAL.
The Repe broke and George Robinson Was Hanged the Second Time.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 2.—At Wilson Court House in the presence of a thousand people George Robinson, colored, was hanged for the murder of another Negro.

On the first drop the rope broke, Robinson was brought up the steps in the outside of the scaffold to be hanged the second time, and had to wait until the sheriff went to a store to secure another rope. He was conscious throughout the whole of this remarkable ordeal and did not show the faintest sign of collapse.

MURDER HIS WIFE.

IN OUR NEIGHBORHOOD COUNTY OF HALLARD.

The authorities at Wickliffe have arrested one Thomas Edwards, white, accused of the brutal murder of his wife, near that place, Sunday night.

The woman's body was found lying across the I. C. track near Wickliffe. She had evidently been choked to death, as finger marks were plainly visible on her throat, and her head and face had been beaten and bruised.

Edwards, who claims Nashville, Tenn., as his home, and the unfortunate woman had been traveling across West Kentucky as tramps. They had been seen quarreling violently and fighting on several occasions in this section.

Sunday night it was supposed, after a quarrel, that Edwards choked and beat his wife to death, and afterwards placed the body on the rails to be mangled by an early train, thus hiding the awful crime. A track-walker found the body before the train had passed and word was quickly sent to Wickliffe.

The alleged murderer was soon jailed. The evidence is regarded as strong against the accused, who will soon have to answer for the horrible deed. He is charged with the murder of his wife.

Edwards appears to be a white vagabond.

There was quite an exciting Sunday night in front of Hunt's drug store in Mayfield. While everything was quiet and serene and a large crowd of men sitting in front of the store, a loud bang came along the sidewalk and fell in a fit of laughing and snapping at everything in its reach. It is unnecessary to state there was a tramp among the crowd and a crowd of three minutes later the investigation was made without result and then the command, after standing in formation for 20 minutes, was called to quarters and not again disturbed.

DUSTY RIVER.

CONDITIONS ON THE MISSISSIPPI.

Every one, in the beginning, is the statement of a vital truth. But to accept any creed as a finality is death. Where there is the spirit of revision there is life. We can well afford to pay for a standing advertisement of our gratitude for any improvement of our creed. In my dream of the future church I offer my creed, not as a substitute for yours, but as one which, combined with yours, might possibly give each both a broader vision and a more abundant life.

The church of the future, as it appears to me, will have no written creed. In form of government, it will have pure democracy. No dogma will be allowed to do service for religion. Religion is love. Worship is useful and true work.

The church of the future must appeal to the social conscience. It is hideous that we should cut our heads in pieces when our brothers starve.

The church of the future must assert man's right to heaven here. It must teach men to have faith in a Creator who has made things well, faith that the ills of humanity are due, not to his blindness, but to man's ignorance of natural law.

The church of the future must have faith in man; faith that he would rather do right than wrong; faith that if he were free, his own nobility would lead him to the holiest and best of all.

The church of the future must enlist men in the holy crusade for economic liberty, for the public good; leading them toward the regularity that is to be, by the simple ways of justice and peace.

The long prevailing drought was broken in this section Tuesday night by a splendid and most gracious rain. It was worth many thousands of dollars to the farm interests and health of the community. All the late corn will be greatly benefited, but the early corn is damaged beyond redemption.

Tracey Killed.

Harry Tracey, the notorious outlaw, who escaped from the Oregon penitentiary after killing 3 prison guards, was at last found and surrounded in a farm yard near Fellows, Washington, 50 miles from Spokane. After another desperate fight he crawled into a wheat field and killed himself. This was the most desperate outlaw on record. He fought and escaped from more than a dozen officers posse since his parent's leg, and killed in these encounters 1 man.

Danger of Fires.

Be careful as to fires in your rooms, flues, engine rooms, etc., and enjoin carefulness and watchfulness upon every inmate of your family, employees and all others. Hickman is temporarily without water works, therefore at the mercy of the flames should a fire occur. The authorities are doing all in their power, but nevertheless we are without protection. Some may say what they please, but Hickman water works on occasion of fire, have more than paid their tremendous cost in the protection and saving of property.

OUR COUNTY ROADS.

Improvements Being Now Agitated.

Unusual to say, the improvement of our county roads is being now agitated in mid-summer. Usually such talk is in mid-winter when the roads are bad and sometimes impassable, and then in the summer when the roads are very good everywhere the agitation subsides.

We are reminded that Fulton county roads are far worse than those of our neighbor counties in Tennessee or Kentucky. Our honorable County Judge Kearby, is a live, progressive man, and has so proven himself as to county road improvements, but he has been handicapped by conditions and lack of authority. A stranger who does not know the line dividing Tennessee and Kentucky can tell Tennessee by the improved roads, and this is frequently commented upon. The contrast is far more noticeable when a Fulton county man goes into the county of Ballard or Carlisle. In these counties the roads are worked under the contract system, not expensive but simply throwing the dirt to the center and ditching on the sides. And what is more, the people of these counties could not be induced to return to the old system, so much have they benefited in the value of lands and the carrying of farm products to market.

The law, we understand, authorizes the county magistrates of any county in Kentucky, to establish the contract system of working the county roads and to give specific directions as to how the roads shall be worked. Why can't the Fulton county magistrates act in this matter, and at least put us on equal grounds with our neighbors? Surely it is unmistakable that the interest of the people of this county is increasing day by day in favor of better roads, and on that side is arrayed the live, active, progressive people of the county. Why can't our magistrates, separately or as a body, visit Obion, Ballard, or Carlisle, and investigate for themselves, and talk to those people, and give us early action.

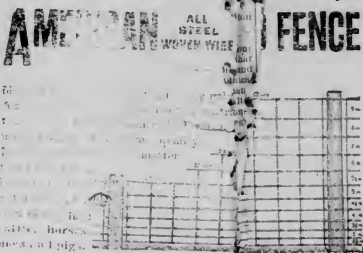

Levee Contract.

The contract for building a portion of the Hickman and Tiptonville levee, commencing at Hickman, was awarded in Memphis, on Wednesday, and of course work will commence as soon as the contractor can get his outfit on the grounds as it is to be completed by January 1st. The probability for the levee being completed is not encouraging. The idea prevails, which was so understood by the Courier until recently, that the government had appropriated $200,000 for the building of this levee. It appears that such is not the fact. The River Commission recommended that the government would aid this levee to the amount of $200,000, but Congress made no specific appropriation. It is all in the discretion of the River Commission, and the Commission avers that they will not make allotments except where the local people are helping themselves to build the levees, or in other words that they will use the present and future government appropriations on levees where the people are helping. So far Kentucky has used no money towards helping, and the conditions of our subscriptions are not collectable until the levee is completed, and for that reason money cannot be obtained.

The contract for building the levee from Hickman was let to the Memphis Contracting Company at 12.40 per cubic yard. P. McCadden is the head of the company, and says he will commence the work the latter part of August.

REFUSED TO EAT SPOILED MEAT AND WENT TO PRISON.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 5.—A special to the Times from Mammoth Cave, Ky., says that the members of Company 1, Covington, of the Kentucky State Guards who are holding their annual camp of instruction there, unfinished this morning and refused to drill declaring that their rations were unfit to eat and that they could not drill without proper food. The officers of the company insisted the soldiers obey the orders to "fall in," but being unable to enforce their commands were obliged to place the refractory soldiers in the guardhouse.

Upon investigation it was found that a portion of the meat intended for the troops was spoiled, and it was found necessary to obtain a fresh supply.

Obion, Tenn., was again visited by a big fire Tuesday night. The total loss will amount to about $6,000 with practically no insurance. The blaze originated in a vacant residence belonging to the heirs of Mrs. Jordan and was set on fire as it has not been occupied for some time. Fuel was running high and if the culprit is captured a lashing may follow. The vacant dwelling was insured. The fire started about 9:30 last night and burned about an hour. All the buildings were frame and the owners were unable to get insurance on them.

There is in the Courier's curio window an ancient coin, said to be a two farthing piece in use in the days of our Lord Jesus Christ. On one side of the head of one of the Caesars—the Caesars of the East, but whether "Augustus" or "Julius" is not clearly legible. The coin was found in an Indian mound near Hickman.

Cholera is decreasing in Manila, but a large number of cases and deaths are reported from the provinces. Since the outbreak of the epidemic there have been reported throughout the archipelago 21,408 cases and 10,105 deaths.

There is a little girl living not far from Hickman who used to be a good friend with a summer girl, named Mary. But now the city folks and she do not speak. Chief of all, and this is the reason she gave to a little neighbor girl. "Why don't you speak no more? I'll tell you. First she was too weak in bloomers—that was all right—then she started a dog, and a walkin' stick—'I could stand them; but when she took to cigars and an' began a blowin' smoke through her nostrils, a-makin' her face look like a locomotive engine, that settled it, an' we meet as strangers."

It is interesting these days to watch the ice cream and soda water firms along Clinton street. Many an amusing sight may be witnessed. Chief of all the funny things that go to make up the pictures is that of the young man who is trying to steer his girl clear of such resorts. With what Napoleonic strategy does he point out the nearby landscape, with what an anxious countenance he approaches each booth, and with what relief does he step along when the last name has been passed. Oh, girls if you only knew it your matrimonial chances would be lost forever if, when you start off with Willie, you would say, "No, thanks, I've got stomach trouble, I don't care for ice cream." This would set both parties right and Willie could be magnanimous and offer his Sisie a treat at every booth without a fear that she would "take him up." Rather hard on the soda man though.

New York, August 1.—In the mail that Harris, Gates & Co. received this morning was a rather bulky letter from a Missouri town. It contained a yellow back $20 bill, care, wrapped in plenty of paper and wound around with string of thread. Accompanying the inclosure was a letter which ran as follows:

Dear Mr. Gates.—My husband does not know that I am sending this to you. I took the $20 bill from our family Bible, where he placed it for safekeeping until he had some more to put in the bank. I know you have made a lot of money for other people, and I would dearly like to see if you could make me $200 from the little I send you, as I want to go to California on a trip.

"What are you going to do with it?" I asked Mr. Charles G. Gates, one of John W. Gates.

"The only thing we can do is to send it back," said Mr. Gates. "We are not running a discretionary road business here."

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Cough Syrup.

Dr. Clark H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady, sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed proved ineffectual and she became worse every hour. Her parents became so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do I did not know. I was a young lady's life was in my hands. I tried Chamberlain's Cough Syrup, and after a few doses she was feeling much better. In three days she was again on her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well. For sale by Cowell & Cowell."

SEEDS FOR EVERY BODY

Washington, Aug. 3.—Forty million packages of seeds will be sent out by the agricultural department this year for farmers all over the country on lists furnished by senators and representatives.

The number of seed that will be contained in these packages will run into the millions, and they will weigh about 1,000 tons.

This will be the most extensive distribution in the history of the department of agriculture, and it is said to be the most useful to the agriculture community.

Heretofore there has been much complaint about the quality of the seeds sent out. Many of them have failed to grow. This year all contractors have been away with and the department has made its purchases in the seed markets by its own experts, who have tested all seeds bought. More attention is also being given this year to the selection of improved varieties of farm and garden seeds.

Each senator, representative and delegate in congress will have to hand out 12,000 miscellaneous packages, each containing smaller packages of five kinds of seeds. In addition, each will have 500 packages of cowpeas, each one or little known varieties of peas, lentils, and each will have 500 packages of flower seeds. Arrangements are made whereby city representatives can exchange garden for flower seeds and special collections of flower seeds are put up for city constituents containing varieties suitable for growing in window boxes, lots and small doorways.

DEBATE PROPOSED.

If the President is really going to make speeches in the campaign there is no reason why he should not have a joint debate with somebody—Colonel Bryan, for instance.—Cin. Enquirer.

It may be that Secretary Shaw, when he takes the stump this year, will "reply" again to Colonel Bryan, not that the Colonel is saying anything that needs to be answered, but it will be part of the Republican policy to keep the "issues" of 1896 and 1900 alive.

TALK OF A CANNING FACTORY.

We understand there is talk of locating a canning factory here, and we believe if the proper parties would take the matter up and present it to our citizens in a business manner, they would take hold of the project in a financial way. Talk, though, don't amount to a hill of beans in a dry season. It takes money to make the more go and it will require money and activity, otherwise there's no reason on earth why an enterprise of this kind should not prove a success here.

Buy "Sunshine" flour and you will get no other.

I'M ADAM.

East Liverpool, O., Aug. 1.—A wild man who has spread terror in St. Clair Township for the past four days was captured today. The officers found him stark naked in the woods eating grass. He said he was Adam.

He proved to be Charles Burbeck, a former patient of the Massillon Asylum, and will be sent back to that institution.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST.

Not how cheap, but how good, is the question.

THE TWICE-A-WEEK REPUBLICAN is not as cheap as it is popular, and the paper that is worth printing. If you read it all the year round, you are interested in all the important and interesting affairs of the world. It is the best and most reliable newspaper that money and brains can produce, and those should be the distinguishing traits of the newspaper that is designed to be read by all numbers of the family.
